

Image Libraries

1

images.MD

images.MD has over 70,000 medical images from more than 100 collections and 2,000 contributors.

<http://www.images.md/>

2

medphoto

Wellcome Images is one of the world's richest and most unique collections, with themes ranging from medical and social history to contemporary healthcare and biomedical science. The Biomedical Collection holds over 40,000 high-quality images from the clinical and biomedical sciences. Selected from the UK's leading teaching hospitals and research institutions, it covers disease, surgery, general healthcare, sciences from genetics to neuroscience including the full range of imaging techniques.

<http://medphoto.wellcome.ac.uk/>

3

HEAL

The Health Education Assets Library (HEAL) is a digital library that provides freely accessible digital teaching resources of the highest quality that meet the needs of today's health sciences educators and learners. [22,000+ objects]

<http://www.healcentral.org/>

4

ImageBank

This resource consists of freely available images contributed by academics, researchers, Learned Societies, industry and individuals with rights cleared for educational purposes. [6,000+ objects]

<http://www.bioscience.heacademy.ac.uk/imagebank/>

5

Flickr

Flickr's Creative Commons pool. Searchable and browseable database of licensed photos from this photo sharing service [62,000,000+ objects]

<http://www.flickr.com/creativecommons/>

6

Wikimedia Commons

A database of freely usable media files (audio/video/images) to which anyone can contribute. [4,775,325+ objects]

<http://commons.wikimedia.org/>

7

Stock.XCHNG

SXC is a website providing free-to use stock photography and illustrations for non-commercial and personal use. [396,501+ objects]

<http://www.sxc.hu/>

Copyright/Permissions

images.MD...

Subscribers have unlimited personal use of the images for the life of their subscription. This covers lectures, presentations, research, etc. (any non-commercial use). You cannot publish the images, in print or online, without acquiring standard permissions through our permissions department. The exception would be for teaching purposes on a password-protected Web site, or printed handouts in a lecture or presentation.

How can I use the content from images.MD?

medphoto...

Images on this site are freely available for download for personal, academic teaching or study use, under one of two Creative Commons licences. For further details please see our Terms of Use.

Type A

Type B

HEAL...

Each of the health sciences teaching resources in the HEAL repository/referatory is licensed for free use, reproduction, and modification by registered users of HEAL according to the terms of the Creative Commons license associated with that resource. See the Detailed View for that resource, or refer to the XML manifest that is downloaded with the resource via the Download Folder. You do not need to request permission to use the resource in the licensed manner. To request additional uses for any resource, outside the bounds of the Creative Commons license, please contact the copyright holder(s) of the resource directly. The copyright holder(s) is/are listed on the Detailed View for each resource. Ownership of the resource remains with the copyright holder(s).

Using resources found in HEAL

ImageBank...

Images and text may only be freely downloaded and used for learning and teaching purposes within educational establishments (HE, FE and schools) for non-profit purposes only, see terms and conditions. The user is required to acknowledge the contributor, the copyright holder and the Centre for Bioscience ImageBank on every use of the image(s). The user by using any image agrees to the terms and conditions of use.

Terms and conditions of use